

BSSPD Annual Conference Award Winners

.....

The British Society of Prosthodontics offer a number of awards annually, ranging from undergraduates to highly esteemed members of the society. Should you wish to apply for any of our awards, please see our website for further details: <https://www.bsspd.org/Awards.aspx>

The following were winners announced at our recent annual conference held in Birmingham:

Schottlander poster award – Mr Ollie Jones for his poster entitled “A Digitally Constructed Maxillary Obturator”

Schottlander oral award – Dr Rosanna Busuttill for her presentation entitled “A comparison of the marginal and internal fit of two novel CAD/CAM lithium disilicate materials; Initial LiSi Block, (GC, Japan) and Amber Mill, (HassBio, Korea) compared with an original CAD/CAM lithium disilicate material; IPS e.max CAD (Ivoclar Vivadent, Liechtenstein)”

Kulzer award - The winner of the 2023 Kulzer award was Aliza Khan from Cardiff University for her essay entitled "For implant - supported single crowns, do customised healing abutments offer an aesthetic advantage for peri- implant soft tissue conditioning when compared with prefabricated counterparts"?

Coltene poster award - The two winners of the 2023 Coltene Early Career award were Simranpal Bhavra for his submission "Severe toothwear rehabilitation and prosthodontic management" and Palna Panchasara for her submission entitled "A covid conundrum - the challenges encountered for a restorative case"

Gold medal award – Professor Craig Barclay

Save the date – our next annual conference "Prosthodontics at the Interface - Art & Science" will be held at the Royal College of Music & Drama, Cardiff on Thursday 18th April 2024 to Friday 19th April 2024 under the presidency of Mr James Owens. Please see our website for further information in the autumn: <https://www.bsspd.org/Conferences/Annual+Conference+2024.aspx>